New York City.

Dear Sir:-

When I called the other day I was very sorry that I did not find you in to inform you of the work we are doing and to ask your co-operation on behalf of the people we are working with.

At the present time I am seeking a position for a man of fifty, who has worked as an inspector for the Society of Prevention of Cruelty to Animals for the past ten years. He became ill but is now in good health, and would make an excellent guard for any museum or institution of a similar nature. He is of impressive appearance, refined and cultured, and I am sure you would find him satisfactory if you had such an opening at the present time.

If you are in need of any maintenance help at any time we shall be glad to have you call on us to fill such positions as porters, watchmen and guards. We also have clerical workers.

Your co-operation would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Ann Lehmann
Placement Secretary.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of the 13th is at hand, and I too am sorry that I did not see you when you were here the other day. At the present time we could not avail ourselves of the services of the individual you describe, but I shall file your letter as there may come an occasion in the future in which you will be able to help us.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
